PASTOR'S PARAGRAPH

What's a church to do? That's a good question! Truth is, the longer I serve as a pastor and observe the diversity of churches that minister in the name of Jesus, the more I realize the extreme value of our ongoing discernment regarding the call of God. Our task is to always be seeking to know the nature of our particular call and asking God to reveal how we can best fulfill our church's particular mission to the world in which we live.

Have you noticed, there is no church anywhere around exactly like us? Well of course not. Our building and parking and the people that make up LBC all look different from others. More importantly, who we are and how we fulfill our unique mission is different from all other local churches, even the ones in our own community. God has called us, each and every one of us, to be just who He created us to be and fulfill that with our total selves. When I think of our unique calling, I rejoice. When I think of how we are brought together to fulfill this calling as a church, I rejoice even more!

So then the question, what are we discerning as we pray to determine how we can be the uniquely called people known as Littleton Baptist Church?

First, let's focus on our special expressions of our call at present. This month we'll express that as we offer a Community Kid's Carnival to the boys and girls of our area, many who have little opportunity to have such Christian fun at no cost to them. In June we'll be hosting with other churches a Community VBS to share the love of Jesus. Each summer we take medicines which support a medical clinic that enables the people of El Salvador to offer health care to the truly poor. And we distribute food in the poorest regions for those who are looking for enough food to feed their families.

Each Sunday, we offer praise to God through worship and study God's word in Sunday School. Starting this month we'll again offer worship each Sunday to the campers at Outdoor World.

Our youth and children are given opportunities to discover the love of God and to share it through ministry. Opportunities such as puppet shows, kids' carnival, Junior singers, mission trips, and so much more fill their lives.

Additionally, we are given opportunity to help needy individuals through the community LACTS food pantry and our ongoing benevolence ministries.

God is blessing us to serve Him in countless ways. Let us give thanks and continue to seek him.

Yet we must not rest on our laurels or leave these ministries to the few, but let us each continue to say, what can I do, who can I better be as I serve my Lord?

While God will reveal more to you for us collectively and you individually as you seek to discern his ongoing call, I'm sure among them will be the following:

- I will be faithful with my presence at worship and in the ministries of my church whenever possible. I am needed and valued as a member of my church.
- I will pray for the other members of my church as we serve so that we will each be growing in His grace and service for the Kingdom.
- I will volunteer to serve in the various ministries of the church where I am called and my gifts and interests enable me to have the most impact for the work of His Kingdom.

- I will be faithful to my church with my tithes and offerings. As I am blessed, I will commit to be faithful to my church's work for the kingdom of God.
- I will make every effort to participate in learning and applying God's Word, through ongoing Bible Study and educational ministries of the church.
- I will invite and encourage newcomers to the area and those we encounter who might not be attending a church anywhere else. And seek to make them feel welcomed when they attend.
- I will continue to pray to discern the call of God for me personally and for my church and her outreach in the name of Jesus Christ.
- I will recommit myself to enable Littleton Baptist Church to be the best it can be.
- I will be an encourager that enables each and every individual to find their place of service and to utilize their gifts in the most effective way for God's Kingdom.

Hey Church! Let's keep being the best church we can be. Our Lord calls us and our world awaits such a church as this!

Let's look to him to continue to help us day by day! If we do, God's church will fulfill her mission and we will know the greatness of the joy of serving our Glorious Lord!

I look forward to doing that together with each of you, and if ever I can assist you in your journey, please do not hesitate to let me know!

May God richly bless others through you! And Us!

Mike

MOTHER'S DAY OFFERING NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST HOSPITAL WEEK OF PRAYER MAY 4 - 11

Your gifts truly make a difference, lifting burdens of need and drawing people closer to Christ in gratitude. Every dollar of the Mother's Day Offering is used to help pay hospital bills of selected patients who have serious financial needs and who received care at Baptist Hospital. The recipients make too much to qualify for government assistance, but need a helping hand to pay hospital bills they are responsible for. Each patient is carefully screened by Hospital financial counselors. A committee of Baptist ministers and WMU leaders administer the fund. Help is provided from a few hundred to a few thousand dollars. We will be receiving this offering throughout the month of May.
