PASTOR'S PARAGRAPH

March 11, 2020. It seems like so long ago. Yet it was only a year ago. It was the day everything changed. We had heard about this thing called COVID-19 on the news. We knew it was out there. Yet this is the day that everything seemed to change. That afternoon it was announced that the NC CBF Annual Gathering would meet virtually, but had hopes that we would meet in person during the National CBF Annual Gathering during the summer. Yet that night, it seemed everything changed in the US. That night we learned an NBA player had contracted the disease, and over the next few days the entire sports world shut down. And soon enough, the entire country shut down.

March 15, we met for the final time in-person until July. Right in the middle of the season of Lent. Right in the middle of the time we were focused on remembering the death of Jesus and what that meant for us. It was meant to be a time of reflection, yet as the world we knew around us was changing, it made it difficult to focus on it. Yet we reflected anyway.

As we come to one year later, we again are in that reflection time. A time to reflect on what Jesus did for us by way of the cross. Yet there is reflection about other things going on. So I guess the word of the month would be reflection. Reflection of where we have been, where we are, and where we are going. But the most important reflection, where is Jesus leading us as the church. The season of Lent is a great time for reflection.

So as we are in the midst of Lent, I encourage our entire congregation to reflect. I encourage our congregation to spend some time practicing spiritual disciplines. Whether that is fasting, prayer, studying, or any other discipline. Pick one that allows more time for reflection. Reflect on who you are as a Christian, and how this past year has made you stronger. It has been a dark time, but there is light at the end of the tunnel. The season of the cross is a dark time as well, yet that Sunday brought a light. And there will be a light for us.

As we worship in March, we will continue spending time reflecting on Jesus's final week. Over the month we will be looking at Judas' betrayal, Jesus washing the feet of his disciples, the cross, and finally the grief that the disciples felt after his death. And through these moments we can better appreciate what Jesus did for us. And then from that, we can reflect on where we are because of him. So as we are in the midst, spend time on your own in reflection as we then come together and reflect as a corporate congregation.

Grace and Peace,

David

As we settle into the season of Lent, our music for our worship service naturally takes on a more reflective nature. It is a time about reflection in our lives and a time for preparation for the remembrance of Christ's dying on the cross for us.

There are an abundance of hymns written about the cross. There are probably more hymns that talk about the cross than about any other aspect of the Christian faith. You can probably name at least 10 right off the top of your head!

Take time during this Lenten season to explore some Lenten hymns. YouTube is a wonderful place to listen to some old and new songs about the cross. Listen to the words and let them lead you to the foot of the cross. Remember that these more somber hymns lead us up to Christ's resurrection!

P.S. Those who know me know that I am a huge Harry Connick, Jr. fan! During the pandemic he felt driven to make an album entitled Alone with My Faith. He has some old favorites along with some he wrote. He arranged all of the songs, played every instrument, and sang every part! It comes out on March 19th! I can't wait!!! I hope you give his music a chance!

Laura

MISSION MOMENTS

March is here! Warmer days - with sunshine - are on the way. God has been with us through the wet, cold winter. His presence is always warm and inviting. Our call is to share that warmth with all. In a recent Sunday School lesson we studied God's promise to Noah. Remember the Sunday School lessons from your youth. The ark filled animals and one family. God chose Noah to carry out His plan. Noah walked with God, he obeyed God and he trusted God. That trust gave Noah the courage and faith to do what God asked him to do. Build a BIG boat on dry land!! What a show of faith. What is our BIG boat? What is God calling you to do for Him? He promises He will always be with us, even when the world laughs and makes fun of Christians.

Build your boat. Show your faith, obey your calling and trust that GOD is right beside you. Each one of us has a special place in God's plan. Missions starts with us knowing that plan and following it.

Enjoy the springtime. Enjoy each other. Enjoy God's love.

Dear God,

In this season of Lent, we're reminded of our own difficulties and struggles. Sometimes the way has seemed too dark. Sometimes we feel like our lives have been marked by such grief and pain, we don't see how our circumstance can ever change. But in the midst of our weakness, we ask that you would be strong on our behalf. Lord, rise up within us, let your Spirit shine out of every broken place we've walked through. Allow your power to be manifest through our own weakness, so that others will recognize it is You who is at work on our behalf. We ask that you would trade the ashes of our lives for the beauty of your Presence. Trade our mourning and grief for the oil of joy and gladness from your Spirit. Trade our despair for hope and praise. We choose to give you thanks today and believe that this season of darkness will fade away. Thank you that you are with us in whatever we face and that you are greater than this trial. We know and recognize that you are Sovereign, we thank you for the victory that is ours because of Christ Jesus, and we are confident that you have good still in store for our future. We thank you that you are at work right now, trading our ashes for greater beauty. We praise you, for you make all things new.

In Jesus' Name,

Amen.
